I have been on different committees and in different positions to vote for scholarship opportunities with the Officer's Wives Club and through different military base experiences. Also, my husband spent 25 yrs in the military and many of those yrs he was a professor at the Air Force Academy, also, serving on a scholarship committee. So, we've had many conversations about what it takes to be a good candidate to receive such an opportunity.

I would like the opportunity to serve on this committee to be able to give back to my community. I love the thought of helping others, especially when it comes to kids and furthering their education.
