6. OLD BUSINESS:

None.

7. NEW BUSINESS:A. Halifax Crossings Mass Grading- PAR26-0011 - Pre-Application Meeting

The applicants Kris Rowley, Sean Meade, and Keith Trace discussed the proposal for the mass grading of 75 acres for future multi-use development.

Planner 1, Brandon Hatch, discussed phasing for the project. He also discussed the Preliminary Plat and Final Site Plan that will be required for the site.

Mr. Trace confirmed that the first phase developed will consist of commercial and multi-family elements.

Planning Manager, Matthew West, informed the applicant that traffic studies may need to be performed for the site.

Member Grosvenor discussed emergency vehicle access and drive aisles within the development.

Vice Chair Wallace advised the applicant that environmental and tree surveys would be needed for the site. She also informed the applicant that the site is a scrub jay territory.

B. Murphy's Bar & Liquor Expansion - PAR26-0013 - Pre-Application Meeting

The owner of Murphy's Bar, Monica Murphy gave an overview of the site plan. The applicant proposed an outside seating extension to the already-existing business as well as the addition of a sandwich shop.

Planning staff discussed the additional outside seating and required that the seats be bolted down.

Member Grosvenor advised the applicant to not increase the occupancy or additional fire safety measures would have to be pursued.

C. Hampton Oaks RPU D Tract A Mailbox Kiosk - PAR26-0014 - Pre-Application Meeting

The applicant and HOA president for the site, Molly Santana, gave an overview of the site proposal to install a centralized, drive-up area to serve residents who are retrieving mail. The mailbox area will be accessed via one-way, horseshoe-shaped driveway designed to allow vehicles to enter, circulate, and exit without disrupting traffic at the adjacent intersection.

Planning Manager, Matthew West informed the applicant that a site plan approval would be needed.

Committee members were further discussed the proposal that was presented.
