B. Florida Sunshine Law - Marsha Segal-George

City Attorney Marsha Segal-George gave a presentation to the Committee on the Sunshine Law. Members may not communicate with each other about items on the Agenda via text, email, online, over lunch, and social media just to give some examples.

If you have an issue or need to communicate to other members you would work through Staff. Staff would then determine what can and can't be sent. Ultimately, there's liability if Members communicate inappropriately on a Sunshine board; liability for the person who does it, the person who answers, and liability for the City.

As a Sunshine board, the meetings have to be open to the public, noticed, and minutes must be recorded.
